

The USC UCEDD is looking for:

People with developmental disabilities to serve on our Consumer Community Advisory Board (CCAB)

The USC UCEDD (www.uscucedd.org) develops and supports quality services and systems for individuals with, or at risk for, behavioral, developmental and or special health care needs and their families, through training, research, clinical/community service, and information dissemination.

What You Will Do As a Board Member:

- Provide feedback on USC UCEDD's activities
- Attend three meetings per year. Meetings are from 9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Receive support and accommodations as needed.
- Receive reimbursements for travel, childcare, personal assistant services, and a $75 stipend.

Benefits of Being a Board Member:

- Talk about your life experiences and interests
- Represent your group or community
- Develop your leadership skills
- Participate in workgroups and committees
- Network with other consumers, family members, professionals and disability advocates

We are especially looking for candidates who are African American and/or Latino, but all interested applicants should apply.

If you are interested in applying, please contact Hisano Hamada at (323) 361-8853 or at the email address HHamada@chla.usc.edu.
