REGIONAL CENTER WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY FOR NLACRC EMPLOYEES AND BOARD MEMBERS

This policy is adopted to comply with the Department of Developmental Services (DDS) Regional Center/Employee and Board Member Complaint Process Filing and Contact Information Guidelines. Accordingly, NLACRC has adopted this policy for complaints by Employees and Board Members.

1. General

This policy is to provide a guide and structure to assist any NLACRC employee or board member who wishes to report any perceived improper regional center activity and/or improper vendor/contractor activity and be protected from retaliation when doing so. As set forth herein, a whistleblower is an employee or a member of the Board of Trustees of the Center (hereinafter referred to as the “trustee”), who in good faith¹ reports any “improper regional center activity” and/or “improper vendor/contractor activity” committed by an employee, a trustee, or a vendor/contractor.

Whistleblower complaints, for purposes of this policy, are defined as the reporting of an “improper regional center or vendor/contractor activity.”

An “improper regional center activity” means an activity by a regional center, or an employee, officer or board member of a regional center, in the conduct of regional center business, that is a violation of state or federal law or regulation; violation of contract provisions; fraud or fiscal malfeasance; misuse of governmental property or constitutes gross misconduct, incompetency, or inefficiency.

An “improper vendor/contractor activity” means an activity by a vendor/contractor, or an employee, officer, or board member of a vendor/contractor, in the provision of State funded services, that is a violation of a state or federal law or regulation; violation of contract provisions; fraud or fiscal malfeasance; misuse of government property; or constitutes gross misconduct, incompetency, or inefficiency.

NLACRC’s Whistleblower policy protects employees and the trustees from any form of retaliation for the good faith reporting of perceived improper activity committed by employees, the trustees or any other person. In short no adverse action will be taken against the person filing the complaint simply because a complaint has been filed. Employees and the trustees are expected to adhere to the highest standards of business and personal ethics in discharging their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of NLACRC, we are obligated to comply with all applicable laws and regulations with honesty and integrity.

2. Persons Permitted to File Complaints

This policy applies reports of improper activity by all NLACRC trustees and NLACRC employees, including employees in the San Fernando Valley, Antelope Valley, and Santa Clarita Valley offices.

3. Responsibility and Obligation to Comply with Policy

It is the responsibility of all employees and all trustees to comply with this policy and to report perceived improper activity to the Center’s Compliance Officer.

4. Procedure For Filing A Complaint

4.1 To make a complaint, contact the Compliance Officer. The Compliance Officer is either the Chief Organizational Development Officer, or, if the complaint involves the Chief Organizational Development Officer, then the Executive Director. Also, as a separate option, a complaint may be made directly to DDS, the Board of Trustees or the Board’s Executive Committee. The Compliance Officer or the Board of Trustees will notify the sender and acknowledge receipt of the complaint within five (5) business days. All reports will be promptly investigated and appropriate corrective action will be taken by NLACRC if warranted by the investigation.

- 4.2 NLACRC requires a clear and concise statement of the alleged improper activity and any evidence you have to support the allegation. NLACRC encourages employees and board members to notify the Compliance Officer in good faith when they have reason to believe that any “improper regional center activity” and/or “improper vendor/contractor activity,” as those terms are defined in part 1 of this policy, has occurred.

If you do not provide a name or other information (witnesses or documents) that clearly identifies the person you are alleging has engaged in improper activity, and the regional center where that person works or is a board member, we may not have sufficient information to investigate. Copies of documents, rather than originals, should be submitted as they cannot be returned.

Although complaints may be filed anonymously, it is extremely difficult and often impossible to investigate if insufficient information is provided and we have no means to contact you to gather basic facts. In such cases, NLACRC may not be able to effectively investigate the allegations.

- 4.3 The Compliance Officer shall immediately notify the Executive Committee of any such complaint and work with the committee until the matter is resolved. The Executive Committee shall address all reported complaints of improper activity or suspected improper activity as outlined in the above policy.
- 4.4 The Executive Committee has the authority to seek an appropriate impartial party (such action should be coordinated with the center’s corporate counsel), to investigate any suspected improper activity and to make recommendations to the Executive Committee relative to appropriate corrective action. For the purpose of this policy, an impartial party is defined to include an arbitrator, organizational ombudsman, investigator, or mediator.

5. Policy When Complaints Are Filed

- 5.1 For this policy, the Compliance Officer is the Chief Organizational Development Officer. The Executive Director will serve as the Compliance Officer in the event the alleged or suspected improper activity involves the Chief Organizational Development Officer. Also, as a separate option, a complaint may be made directly to the Board of Trustees or the Board’s Executive Committee.

In short no adverse action will be taken against a person filing a complaint, simply because a complaint has been filed. In accordance with Section 7 below, reports of violations or suspected violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation, or to comply with other laws and obligations.
