Chapter 3 - Community Services
SubChapter 5 - Standards for Nonresidential Services
Article 5 - Standards for In-House Respite Services Agencies

§56800. In-Home Respite Services Evaluation.

(a) The vendor shall conduct an annual review of its effectiveness in relation to the service design. This shall include a review of:

(1) The ability of the vendor to meet the in-home respite needs of consumers served;

(2) The aggregate data on:

(A) The number of consumers served;

(B) The different type of consumer needs encountered during service delivery; and

(C) Outcomes in relation to the expectations identified in the service design as required in Section 56780 (a)(1)(B) of these regulations; and

(3) The degree to which family members were satisfied with the service as provided by the in-home respite services agency.

(b) The vendor shall have a written evaluation design specifying:

(1) The purpose of the evaluation;

(2) The type of data to be collected and used;

(3) The frequency of data collection;

(4) The role of consumers, families or authorized consumer representatives in the evaluation process;

(5) Data collection and analysis methods;

(6) A description of the distribution, communication of, and actions taken upon the results of the evaluation;

(7) The frequency of evaluations; and

(8) A description of how the particular evaluation design chosen by the vendor relates to the service design.

(c) The vendor shall submit to the vendoring regional center, user regional centers and the Department a written summary of the annual in-home respite service evaluation which shall be maintained in the vendor file at the regional center and at the Department. The vendor shall maintain on file, pursuant to Section 56796 of these regulations, the full in-home respite service evaluation for review by the vendoring regional center and the Department.
