Other services for families
Other services and supports are available when needed to maintain and strengthen the family unit where one parent, or both parents, is an individual with developmental disabilities.

Community supports
There are other supports available to help consumers participate fully in the community. These supports include outreach to, and education and training of, community service agencies, businesses, and community activity providers.

Resources
NLACRC has a library with books, DVDs, videos, and many other resources. The Van Nuys library has a computer lab with Internet access and special software programs including Dragon Naturally Speaking, Kurzweil 3000, ZoomText, and Inspiration. Please call to schedule your visit.

About NLACRC and the Lanterman Act
NLACRC is a nonprofit corporation that provides case management and access to a full range of effective services for persons with developmental disabilities (consumers).

In accordance with the Lanterman Act, NLACRC provides assistance in accessing services and supports for consumers and their families. The Lanterman Act is the law in California that says people have the right to services and supports as determined through the IPP process and based on individual needs and preferences. Services and supports help to expand consumer opportunities and choices in the community. The intent of this law is to empower consumers so that they may lead lives similar to those of people without disabilities.

You can view the Lanterman Act on the DDS Web site at www.dds.ca.gov.

Questions?
If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask your service coordinator. You may also want to visit the NLACRC Web site at www.nlacrc.org or the Department of Developmental Services (DDS) Web site at www.dds.ca.gov for additional information.

Our supports include outreach to, and education and training of, community service agencies, businesses, and community activity providers.

How can the regional center help?
North Los Angeles County Regional Center (NLACRC) works with persons with developmental disabilities (consumers) and their families to create a plan and identify the services and resources that you need. Our staff are here to help guide you through this important process. Please feel free to ask us for assistance.

The Regional Center can assist consumers and families with gaining access to:
• Education and training programs
• Employment opportunities
• Family supports
• Generic supports
• Living arrangements
• Recreation choices

Services and supports are identified during the Individual Program Plan (IPP). They are chosen based on the needs and choices of the consumer and family.

Services and supports chosen must:
• Be effective in meeting the goals stated in the IPP
• Promote the consumer's self-sufficiency and choice
• Be cost-effective

Early Start
The program plan for families with consumers under age 3 is called an Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP). Required Early Start services must be provided in a timely manner.

Ask your service coordinator for additional information about these and other Early Start services.

The Regional Center works closely with each family.

Types of support
As a payer of last resort, the Regional Center funds services and supports related to the developmental disability, which other sources do not provide. Examples of other supports that serve consumers and their families include:

Generic supports - government supports such as Medi-Cal, Medicare, Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

Natural supports - personal relationships that enhance the quality and security of life (such as family and friends)

Private supports - family health insurance

The Regional Center or other generic resources may provide the services listed below. These services should be considered during the Person-Centered/Family-Centered Planning Process.

Residential supports
