Date: March 4, 2019

Time: 8:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Location: AVUHSD- ROP/PCC Palmdale Conference Center
1156 East Avenue S., Palmdale, 93550
(Avenue S and Swan Drive)

C o n t e n t : Students on the Autism Spectrum experience an inability to process the social world around them. There are various evidence based practices (EBP) used by our school personnel for students with Autism. During this full-day presentation, we will be focusing on Social Narratives (SN). SN is a proven EBP that is used to address students' social, communication, behavior, play, joint attention, academic, and/or adaptive skills needs. This full-day workshop will be practical, hands-on, and applicable to your everyday work with students who experience difficulties with social skills. Participants will also have the opportunity to make materials that can be immediately implemented in their classrooms.

A u d i e n c e : Any school professional servicing students with Autism Spectrum Disorders or development disability.
